MEDICAL BILLING SERVICES

Electronic Medical Records (EMR) and Electronic Health Records (EHR) are two types of digital medical billing systems that are reliable and follow the rules set forth by the federal government. EMR and EHR will assist medical service providers in receiving timely payment from insurance companies.

In the market, there are several EMR/EHR software suppliers, and each of them has a unique product to offer. We at Clever Buck Pvt Ltd., can offer you a complete medical billing solution and are equipped and educated to use the majority of the top EMR/EHR software currently on the market.

OUR SPECIALISED SERVICES ARE:

Customizable speciality billing services are one of our specialized services. Patients might receive a variety of treatments from medical service providers, and not all of them adhere to the same medical billing model. The therapy and the service provider are taken into consideration while designing our specialty billing services. Our knowledgeable and skilled staff can execute the billing process and comprehend the needs.

For greater revenue and more efficient operations, we specialize in process improvement. Our claims BPM and KPM services for payers significantly lower costs and TAT (turnaround time) through integrated process redesign and technological advancements. Payer clients can further reduce expenses with the assistance of our paper to EDI conversion, repricing, and rule-based auto adjudication support services.

In order to compete, payers must strive to maximise accuracy at every stage of the claims payment process. By identifying overpaid claims, payers can save money thanks to our thorough grasp of medical claims and contracts and our evaluation technique. Our payer support services allow CLEVER BUCK to improve accuracy while increasing income for our client/.
